

Christoph Dieng
Member of the Managing Board

NORD/LB Norddeutsche Landesbank – Girozentrale –

Christoph Dieng, born in 1967 in Bad Schussenried, has been a member of the Managing Board of Norddeutsche Landesbank (NORD/LB) in Hanover since 3 February 2017. As Chief Risk Officer (CRO), he is responsible for credit risk management, special credit and portfolio optimization, risk controlling and research/economics. He is also responsible for the Mecklenburg-Vorpommern State Funding Institute and for relationships in Mecklenburg-Vorpommern. Additionally he is in charge of the bank's US relationships and the NORD/LB office in New York. Previously (2007 to 2016), Dieng was responsible for credit risk management and credit portfolio management for the NORD/LB Group as Chief Credit Risk Officer.

Before joining NORD/LB, Dieng worked with Deutsche Bank for 14 years. Between 1993 and 1998 he worked in the corporate finance and corporate customers segments at the bank's offices in New York and Munich, before moving to the risk management segment of the bank in 1999. There, he held various management positions in London, Geneva and Frankfurt - most recently European Head of Credit Risk Management for Global Corporate and Institutions.

Dieng is married with two children.

Education and professional career
from	NORD/LB:
2017 to present	Member of the Managing Board
2007 to present	Chief Credit Risk Officer with additional responsibility for other business segments and within the Group
2000 – 2007	Deutsche Bank AG: Management positions in credit risk management in London, Geneva and Frankfurt
1993 - 1999	Senior Corporate Customer Account Manager and Credit Risk Analyst for airlines, with global industry responsibility Junior Corporate Customers Account Manager in New York Trainee programme at German offices and in Singapore
1989 - 1993	Business economics degree in Pforzheim
1986 - 1988	Banking apprenticeship with Hypovereinsbank AG in Ulm